

JUST COFFEE is traveling to Africa... and you are invited!

We'll be visiting coffee producing partners in:

Ethiopia: April 18-24, 2010

Uganda: April 25-May 01, 2010

Tanzania: May 02-08, 2010

Cost: $1050 per week OR $2700 for all three weeks

Includes: shared accommodation, ground transportation, meals, translation and interpretation, park and museum entrance fees, donations to organizations we visit, service charges

Excludes: flights, airport taxes, personal items, drinks and alcohol, travel insurance, visas

Highlights include:

Ethiopia (Oromia Coffee Farmers Cooperative Union)-

- Visit the headquarters of the Oromia Coffee Farmers Cooperative Union
- Journey into rural areas to meet with organic coffee growers and community leaders that are members of Oromia Coffee Farmers Cooperative Union
- Witness the production of coffee in Ethiopia from the tree to export, including a visit to the national coffee processing center and warehouse
- Learn about community development projects and the Oromia Fair Trade Fund
- Watch the national coffee auction in action and visit the national cupping labs
- Experience the unique coffee culture of Ethiopia
- Participate in a traditional Ethiopian coffee ceremony
- Experience traditional Ethiopian food, music and dancing
- Tour Addis Ababa and visit the nation Museum to see "Lucy" the oldest hominid fossil as well as other archeological findings

Uganda (Gutumindo)-

- Visit the headquarters of Gumutindo, the newest coffee producing partner that Just Coffee purchases coffee from
- Travel the countryside meeting with Gumutindo's organic coffee growers and community leaders
- Witness the production of Ugandan coffee
- Learn about Gumutindo's community development projects including stores, offices, and a medical clinic that have been built for the village's inhabitants
- Visit Mount Elgon National Park, a large volcanic mountain that spans several kilometers along the border of Uganda and Kenya offering challenging but accessible wilderness trekking and wild scenery

Tanzania (Mt. Meru Coffee Project & Kilimanjaro Native Cooperative Union-KNCU)-

- Visit the headquarters of the Mt. Meru Coffee Project and KNCU
- Travel the countryside meeting with Mt. Meru & KNCU coffee growers and community leaders
- Witness the production of coffee in Tanzania from the tree to the export process, including a visit to the Tanzanian Coffee Board Auction, TCCCo Coffee Curing Plant, and coffee cupping
- Visit Kahawa Shamba Fair Tourism Coffee Farm
- Experience traditional Tanzanian food, music and dancing
- Meet with and learn about the Indigenous Education Foundation of Tanzania (IEFT), a non-profit grassroots organization providing quality, affordable secondary education to underserved indigenous children in rural Tanzania
- Visit a national park where wildlife such as giraffes, flamingos, and zebras can be seen
- Visit a traditional Masai village
- Travel near Mt. Kilimanjaro, Africa's highest peak and one of the continent's most magnificent sights

Contact Colleen Coy to register: colleen@justcoffee.coop